PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Our May 7th race meeting was a very well organised and well run event, sadly with low entries so we have made quite a big monetary loss. But it always pleases me when our Ambo's are bored and don't have to leave the pits. Also while we had several riders slide off we only had one pickup as all bar one managed to get back under their own steam.

Sadly, we lost one of our elder members, Ian Tilley has passed away. Ian was a TMCC member for 68 years having joined the club in 1955, receiving Life membership in 1975 and being inducted into the Tasmanian Motorsports Hall of Fame. RIP Till ..

Our awesome Secretary/Treasurer has finally managed to drag her husband out of the shed for a couple of months and is making him drive her around the country. Firstly up the middle to the big rock for a look, then across the top to far north Queensland, and then home via several other places. Have a wonderful trip Karen and we want photo's on the club FB page to prove that you actually went ..

Cary Mc Mahon
Hon President.

This is the last Spoke for a few months, enjoy! (Ed.)

Vale Ian Charles Tilley

On May 19, 2023, the club lost one of its life members with the sad passing of Ian Tilley. Not only a Life Member but a Tasmanian Motor Sports Hall of Fame inductee and a very big supporter of the club for many, many years.

He was born and lived in Campbell Town where his father, Bill, a very competitive racer, ran a Service Station. His earliest memory of bikes was when Bill loaded him up on a bike and took him to the races at Quorn Hall just a few miles out of Campbell Town.

lan started an apprenticeship at age 15 as a mechanic and saved to buy his first bike. He also restored and sold bikes to make money. The family moved to Launceston and Bill took on the Westbury Road Shell Service Station.

lan worked part time as well for Peter Thurley, in his car yard and when someone traded in a 1952 350cc BSA Gold Star, Ian snapped it up to go racing first at Quorn Hall. He therefore joined the club in 1955 and was elected to the committee the following year. He was hooked and started racing then at Longford, Symmons Plains and Baskerville with the occasional trip to Victoria to places like Darley, Phillip Island and Winton.

Ironically his regular number, #17 was also the number of years he raced for, on bikes like the 350 BSA, Manx Norton, Yamaha TD1A, Matchless G45 and a Norton Domiracer. He was a sought-out rider and often rode "Ike" Chenhall's TD1A, and a succession of bikes for Yates Brothers including their 350 Ducati. He was actually forced into retirement after a Go Kart accident that broke is ankle and was difficult to heal and the doctor told him another crash would see him lose his leg.

When Yates Brothers Motorcycles went into liquidation in 1969 Ian added a showroom to the Westbury Road S/S he then ran and became a dealer for Yamaha Motorcycles. As the dealership grew, he moved to a Wellington St. showroom and then to Cameron St. before finally to Tamar St.

He took with him his mechanic from the S/S, Peter Langridge, and added salesman Terry Stocks and parts man Ray Stone who left some years later and was replaced by your scribe for a few years.

Always a big supporter of the club and competitors, he became a big backer of the racing effort of Barry Lack for many years. He also had a great business relationship with "Frank from Continental" and stitched up a deal for two new riders in Barry and Mal Campbell to race a Yamaha 1100 in the Castrol 6 Hour.

In later years longtime friend Robin Yates convinced Till to help build a Yamaha TT 500 up to look like a Manx Norton for Robin's son Craig to race.

Known to most as just simply Till, but to the inner circle a nick name given to him by Ray Stone because of a few hairs that grew on his nose as "HON" (hair on nose).

He was a fervent backer of those who supported him and a proud backer of the TMCC.... His beloved club.

TMCC Championship Round 2 Sunday 7th May 2023

Early this month the overworked officials ran Round 2 of the Club Championships at Symmons Plains in cold and windy but fortunately dry conditions.

Saturday's ride and practice day set the trend for the weekend with a number of riders sliding off on the very cold track.

After such a stunning performance at Round 2 of TRRC at Symmons, this time it was the other extreme for Chloe Honeychurch. She dropped the 600 on Saturday and then dropped the 400 Ninja on Sunday. She was far from on her own in this as it became an extensive list for the weekend with, in fact, 3 going down in the first Qualifying session on Sunday morning when the track temperature was recorded as 5 degrees.

It wasn't until mid-morning when the track temperature started to improve that riders stopped having the front-end wash outs and less riders fell off.

Hopefully not a sign of the times, but there ended up being no juniors competing, and no Lites GP so the Lites Production class ran on its own. It looked like producing some close racing between Chloe Honeychurch (Ninja 400), Isaac Simmonds (KTM 390) and Larry Eaton (KTM EXCF 350) until Chloe slid off in the second race. For those struggling to work out which road race model Larry was on it is an MX (puddle jumper) that Larry rides so well. Again, this class is showing the benefit of the Junior class with Isaac recently joining the class, followed by Gus O'Halloran (Ninja 400) and David Coward (KTM 390). By the end of race 4 Gus proved to be the biggest improver in the class with solid 3rd places.

Actually, there were quite a few improved performances for the day like in his third race meeting Quentin Atkins (CBR1000RR) started the day with a crash in Qualifying and after the team put the bike back together, he showed consistent improvement all day as he chased down fellow Motorcycle City teammate Nathan Tole (CBR600RR) who was also showing improved form. These two were actually topped though by another of the team in Harley Phipps (CBR600RR) who was too unwell to practice Saturday and only a little better Sunday. He was contesting both Clubman Pro and Supersport races and produced some quality lap times to finish second to regular winner James Ryan (FZR1000). The Golden Era up to 500 class looked like going to Cameron Rowell on paper but he had to miss two races while he repaired the damage to his VFR400 after he dropped it in qualifying. This left Trevor Renton to push daughter Eleanor all day on their VFR's.

The small field of Superbikes as usual saw the battle of the CBR1000's go the way of Brett Simmonds, with Jason Spencer chasing as they drew away from Scott Campbell (YZF-R1) and Scott Honeychurch (ZX10R).

Roy Turner had a stella day in the Pre-Modern Open class on his CBR1000 heading the F3 riders on their fleet of SV650's, like Dale Madden, Rob Scott, Mark Eagling, James and Ben Abey. Tony Oliver was down to ride his GSXR750 but couldn't get all the rust out of the tank in time, so again Karen Webb stepped in with her spare GSXR750 SRAD for him to ride all day.

Leaving the best to last with the small field of Supersport riders looking like being a fizzer as Chloe was out and Jesse Woods holed his radiator on Saturday with the spare in the garage in Hobart. Marcus Delaney stepped in with his spare bike for Jesse. Lochie Curtis (GSXR600) dominated with Marcus doing the chasing. That was until race 3 when Scott Honeychurch decided he could have a ride on Chloe's (ZX6R) and provided the race of the day with Lochie, and some no holds barred racing. Interestingly when the riders lined up on the dunny grid for the fourth race Lochie's head was on a swivel looking to see if Scott was going to come out for a repeat but unfortunately, he wasn't.

Looking Back - ANZAC Day

A little late because it was last month, but this club has seen many members serve in the armed forces including, as I mentioned in a previous story, two club members who actually served at Gallipoli in Bert Howe and Percy Simmonds. Bert was to become a life member of the club and long running timekeeper. Percy's son Jack Simmonds took over as timekeeper from Bert and spent decades in the control tower at Symmons Plains.

The list would be incredibly long of active servicemen from the club, even my father who was stationed in Darwin during the bombing and was going through final training before the possibility of being shipped off to the Kokoda Track.

Here though is one most of you probably haven't heard the story off. Ross Oliver, Tony's father was a Spitfire pilot stationed firstly in England after training in Australia. I have been working with Tony for a few years scanning photos and most importantly his full flying logbook that is a staggering record of his time in the RAAF. The information on each flight is so comprehensive it takes both sides of the page to cover each day's activity.

To my mind, pages 80 and 81 are the pages that bring the hairs up on the back of the neck. I have cut just the bottom ¼ of each page to show what I mean.

Ross had been stationed in England at Selsey and on June 1, 1944 he took a 222 Squadron Spitfire (his usual mount) Rego number ZD – B on a 1 hour flight to the airfield at Rednal as a solo flight as you do in a single seat fighter. The main reason was to have an update and fitment of new guns in the wings. On the 6th he was listed to make a top-secret reconnaissance flight in ZD – D over France. It was the "D" Day landing and on return he was to swap to ZD - I for a 2 hour 5 minute flight listed as patrolling over the beaches Gold, Juno and Sword with Flack from the Navy and a "Marvelous sight" and "Army doing well" then a return to base refuel and a 1.55 flight back again. As we all know they were 3 of the main beachhead used in the landing. The bottom of the page also shows that he had to that point racked up 451 hours 45 minutes total flying time.

The postscript to all this is at the moment in England they have only a handful of working Spitfires with one having very little knowledge of its history but the owner believes it was flown by a British pilot. Its rego number is ZD - B and with the help of a family friend who is currently serving in the RAF and visited his family here, late last year, was sent back to England with copies of the photos and Logbook to prove that it was regularly flown by Ross Oliver.

The 222 Squadron was allocated ZD planes with the final initial being the one usually allocated to the one pilot. Ross's usual mount was "B", but he was happier flying in "S" inspired by his fiancé Sylvia. That Squadron was made up of pilots from the Commonwealth. Mainly Australian with occasionally New Zealand and on one occasion a Canadian who became famous as a sharp shooting pilot with many enemy planes shot down.

The irony of Ross regularly flying ZD – B is that now the plane is so famous it was used in a few recent war films and by entering in Google, "Spitfire ZD -B", many articles come up with brilliant colour photos.

On return to Launceston Ross set up Ross Oliver Real Estate and sponsored both Tony and Barry Lack on bikes for a few years. He dabbled in Rally car driving but with his excellent ability to navigate under pressure took on the job as navigator for one John Youl.

UPDATES

As mentioned, a short while ago I have come into possession of another brilliant memorabilia collection from club great and "Father" of Longford, Martin Coombe. If I can get to identify the photos it will give some great history along with the programs from Longford and Bakers Beach. It also shows that the sport kept the photo reprint shops busy at the time, as often the same photo comes up in different collections. Like the shot below of the committee from the 1930's. I am yet to nail down which actual year but with things like the quality of the shot, its great, but no detail. The importance though is that in a collection I got from Ian Tilley with a poor quality of the same but with all the names on the back.

Interesting fact if you look at the photo many seem to have something shiny on the lapel of their three-piece suits. That would be the club's badge and the shiny line on the waistcoat would be the chain to the "Fob" watch in the pocket. The way to individualize your look was in the collar. All shirts of that time were shaped around the neck like a T-shirt with a hole front and back to attach the starched collar with a stud like a cufflink. That way you kept the "shirt" on with a collar and tie for work and if you went out at night you could change to a bow tie or a "butterfly wing" collar or any other fashion design.

It was very popular for decades to have group photos taken like the even earlier one below from Mrs Greens collection with limited names.

It wasn't just sporting committees that had group photos, but many businesses also took group photos like this one of the staff of Sim Kings. It came from Roy Turner's next-door neighbour, Robert Porter whom is 2nd from the right in the front. No other detail, but it is definitely Frank King at the back under the BSA sign. An educated guess is that one lady would be the spare parts ordering lady and the other Frank's secretary. The men in suits would be salesman, the ones in ties and dust coats would be spare parts men and the ones in overalls mechanics with the ones with ties being senior mechanics.

At the end of each year a company would hold their annual dinner and Sim Kings was one of them.

The traditions continue. At the head of the table would be Reta King and Frank King with seating traditions according to the names on the back were married couples were not sat together but opposite each other at the table to encourage conversation with people either side of you. Also, seating was by seniority at the top of the table with the young bucks without partners down the end. Or according to the badly written list of names on the back they could be 6 of the BSA sponsored riders.

Taking these types of photos doesn't exist now so the nearest one to that may be this one taken according to my expert team of researchers, being Barry Lack, at a club Barbeque at Murtle Park in 1975. The clues are that Barry has a plaster cast on his hand from his big clash with Ray McKendrick at Baskerville where he dislocated and then broke his thumb when he caught it in Ray's leathers as he was trying to pass him in the last corner. Also, the two couples standing to the left are South Australians over to compete at the ARRC. So, this would be the Sunday of the March long weekend for Symmons Plains which was the rest day for the two day meeting. Many of them would be committee members at that time.

Starting from the back over the left shoulder of the lady with pig tails in the light shirt is Mal Campbell, Ian Brickhill (sunglasses on head), Tony Oliver and Sue Campbell, In the middle are Toni Lack, Judy Butler and Marg Oliver and in front are Barry Lack, Ray McKendrick and Dennis Butler.

There are many more examples of club members posing for photos and again it is another chance to implore anyone with photos to put details on the back while you can remember them so we can appreciate who the subjects are and put more life into the subjects.

In building the club photo collection I am thinking about seeing if it is possible to add a head shot of as many as I can of the Life Members now on the club's history page on our web site that you have all been into to see the list of Life Members, Committee Members and Trophy Winners.

TMCC has joined the Veteran Wellbeing Voucher Program. The program will cover the cost of TMCC membership for eligible veterans. The program runs by financial year. If any members are wanting to join or renew prior to 30 June, please note the redemption deadline is 12 June 2023. More information can be found at https://veterans.tas.gov.au/wellbeing-vouchers

Wellbeing Voucher Program for Tasmanian veterans

If you're a veteran in Tasmania, the Tasmanian Government has established a new program to help support your health and wellbeing.

The Veteran Wellbeing Voucher Program offers eligible veterans a $100 voucher to help offset the membership or registration fees at participating gyms and sporting clubs.

Gyms and sporting clubs can join the free Program as a Veteran Activity Provider and will be reimbursed for every voucher they accept.
